

Random - too unpredictable

Trig - too predictable

Something more interesting?

Noise Functions

- algorithms that produce coherent randomness
- given some inputs, outputs a number between -1 & 1
- every value is similar to its surrounding value
- “smooth” vs spiky pseudo-random numbers
- how to access these functions?

